Who we are

Europe Direct Leeds is part of a network of 16 centres in the UK, 500 across Europe which aim to act as an interface between the European Union (EU) and its citizens at local level. We can help with general questions on every aspect of Europe and can put you in touch with relevant specialist services if required. We have leaflets, brochures and materials to take away about the European Union's activities and policies. We also organise events and activities to make the public aware of the EU.

European Elections

Europe Direct Leeds has worked in partnership with The Jean Mornet European Centre of Excellence (JMECE) at the University of Leeds to provide information to students and citizens in Leeds. They have organized several events to promote the European Elections and encourage people to vote.
