

Welcome to Leeds Bradford International Airport!

To help pass the time whilst you wait, Leeds Library and Information Service would like to make you aware of our eBook and eAudio collections.

If you are a library member you can start downloading eBooks and eAudio content straight away.

Go to <http://leeds.lib.overdrive.com/> where you can see our catalogue of eResources. You can download a help guide at <http://tinyurl.com/leedsoverdrive>.

We have a choice of over 2000 eBook and eAudio titles.

You can download directly to the following devices using the OverDrive Media Console™:

Android™
BlackBerry® iPhone® / iPad® / iPod touch®
Windows Phone 7.

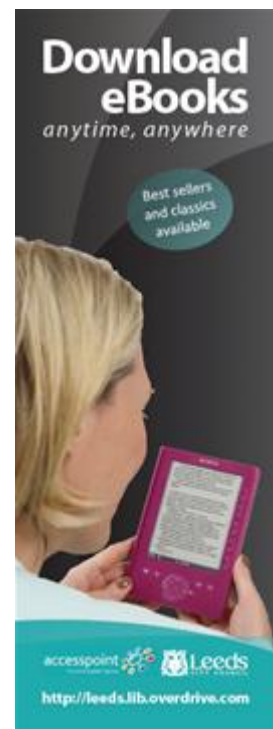

Please note that due to copyright restrictions, Amazon's Kindle reader is not compatible with this service.

If you are not yet a member you will have to join Leeds Libraries when you come back from the airport, or online at <http://tinyurl.com/joinleedslibs>.

Until you are a library member you can go to the Project Gutenberg website (<http://www.gutenberg.org>) for free access to over 36,000 e-books (copyright-free in US).

Airline passengers have been well protected for some time now on their flights out and back home. If their flight is delayed by 2 hours or more, passengers are entitled to free food and drinks. If the delay is 5 hours or more, or if the flight is cancelled, passengers can opt for a refund on the price of their ticket within 7 days, a return flight to their starting point or alternative transportation to their destination. If a flight is postponed until the next day, passengers are entitled to a night in a hotel.

Find out more about your passenger rights at <http://ec.europa.eu/passenger-rights>.
